

IMATA Conservation Fund Nomination Application Instructions

The IMATA Conservation Fund, established in 2011, provides one-time funding contributions to third-party non-profit organizations that are nominated by IMATA members, recommended by the IMATA Research and Conservation Committee, and approved by the IMATA Board annually. Some of IMATA's previously funded conservation organizations include the Marine Mammal Care Center, Manatee Rehabilitation Partnership, Pacific Marine Life Foundation, UNCW-Marine Mammal Stranding Program, Manatee Research, Zoo to You, the Wuhan Baiji Conservation Foundation and The Himalaya.

Nomination Requirements:

- Nomination Applications for non-profit organizations must demonstrate that their Mission and projects focus on conservation-oriented issues which promotes communication, professionalism, and cooperation among those who serve marine animal science through training, public display, research, husbandry, conservation, and/or education. Nomination Applications may include, but are not limited to, support for: habitat, species or individual animal conservation issues, conservation research projects or programs, educational promotions of conservation issues, inter-disciplinary cooperation for conservation issues, publication of peer-reviewed journals, etc.
- Nomination Applications may only be submitted by current Active or Professional IMATA members.
- The Organization Nominee (non-profit organization) must have a designated Organizational Contact.
- Projects may not include requests for salary, university tuition or fees, fringe or overhead costs, or travel that is unrelated to the completion of the project in the budget.
- Nomination Application packets must include the completed Application, two letters of support which state the conservation importance of this Nomination and endorse the qualifications of the Organization, proof of the Organization's non-profit status, Statement of Organizational Support, and copies of required permits (if applicable).
- Nomination Application packets must be fully complete, digitized, and emailed to ResearchConservation@imata.org.
- The Organizational Contact will be the designated Award recipient, and will assume responsibility for management of all aspects of the project.
- The Organizational Contact must agree to IMATA's Terms of Acceptance prior to the distribution of any funds. Failure to agree to these terms will result in IMATA's withdrawal of the funding.
