

Kickstart an Exciting Career in Animal & Marine Mammal Studies!

California State University, Monterey Bay (CSUMB) and the Moss Landing Marine Laboratories are offering 2 unique classes this summer to introduce students to the exciting field of animal/marine mammal training, handling, research, & rehabilitation.

Courses

TECHNIQUES & THEORIES OF ANIMAL TRAINING: BIO 348

June 15–21, 2015 (Earn 3 college credits! CRN 30404)

- History and ethics of animal use and training
- Practical Animal Training Techniques for terrestrial and aquatic animals
- Daily demonstrations using trained sea lions, birds and other animals at the training facility

WORKING WITH MARINE MAMMALS: BIO 347

June 29–July 5, 2015 (Earn 3 college credits! CRN 30403)

History and ethics of animal use and training

- Current topics and careers working with marine mammals
- Learn basic physiology & an overview of common research topics and techniques
- Public display, education and current issues

To Register

For course information, visit csumb.edu/mlml or contact jzeligs@mlml.calstate.edu. For registration, enrollment and other logistical information please visit csumb.edu/summer or call 831-582-4500.

Registration begins April 6th for CSUMB students and April 13th for those outside of the CSUMB system.

Classes are open to any high school graduate regardless of age or nationality. Courses will be taught at Moss Landing Marine Labs in Moss Landing, CA.

Benefits

Fulfills MLO#7 for ESTP Majors (CSUMB)

Each class is only one week long

Fulfills College Science Requirement
Available to undergraduates at any level

No prerequisites needed
Earn a Certificate of Completion in Beginning Marine Mammalogy

Students intern at least one day at Moss Landing Marine Labs assisting in the care of research-trained
California sea lions!

California State University
MONTEREY BAY
College of Extended Education
& International Programs

